ACT NO. 25 OF 2017I assent,

CÉCILE E. F. LA GRENADE

29th September, 2017.Governor-General.

AN ACT to make provisions for certain criminal convictions of offenders to become spent, for the records to be expunged and for matters connected therewith.

[By Proclamation].

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Grenada and by the authority of the same as follows—

PART IPRELIMINARY

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT, 2017.

Short title and commencement.

(2) This Act shall come into force on such date as may be appointed by Proclamation by the Governor-General published in the Gazette.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act—

“adult” refers to an individual who has attained the age of 18 years;

“Board” means the Rehabilitation of Offenders Board established in accordance with section 12;

“child” refers to an individual under the age of 18 years;

“conviction” means a finding of guilt by a court in Grenada, and includes—

(a) a conviction by or before a court outside Grenada;

(b) a finding, other than a finding linked with a finding of insanity, in any criminal proceedings or in proceedings under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2012 that a person has committed an offence or done the act or made the omission charged, notwithstanding that the court did not proceed to formally convict the person but dealt with him or her in any other manner; and

(c) a conviction in respect of which an order is made placing the person convicted on probation, or discharging him or her absolutely or conditionally;

“Minister” means the Minister charged with responsibility for national security;

“non-custodial sentence” means any sentence imposed on a convicted person other than imprisonment;

“proceedings before a judicial authority” includes, in addition to proceedings before any court of law, a tribunal, body or person having power—

- (a) by virtue of any law, custom or practice;
- (b) under the rules governing any association, institution, profession, occupation or employment; or
- (c) under any provision of an agreement providing for arbitration with respect to questions arising thereunder, to determine any question affecting the rights, privileges, obligations or liabilities of any person, or to receive evidence affecting the determination of any such question;

“rehabilitation period” means any period specified under section 8 as a rehabilitation period for the conviction to which it relates, commencing and terminating on such dates as are provided under this Act;

“rehabilitated person” means an individual whose application under section 14 has been approved by the Board;

“sentence” includes any order not being an order dismissing the case, made by a court with respect to a conviction and directing anything to be done or not to be done by the offender;

“spent conviction” means any conviction treated as spent under section 3; and

“the record” means a record kept for the purposes of its functions by any court, police force, Government department, local or other public authority in Grenada, being a record containing information about persons convicted of offences.

PART IISPENT CONVICTIONS

Convictions to be treated as spent.

3. Subject to section 6, where an individual has been convicted of an offence, and has served or undergone or complied with the sentence imposed with respect to the conviction, the individual is, after the expiration of the rehabilitation period, eligible to make an application under section 14 for the conviction to be treated as spent.

Commencement
of rehabilitation
periods.

4. Subject to subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 7, the rehabilitation period applicable to an offence shall commence from the date of release from custody or the payment of a fine or the compliance with any condition of sentence imposed, in respect of that offence.

Effect of
rehabilitation.

5.—(1) Subject to sections 8 and 9, a rehabilitated person shall be treated for all purposes in law as a person who has not been convicted of or sentenced for the offence to which the spent conviction relates.

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment to the contrary—

- (a) no evidence shall be admissible in any proceedings before a judicial authority to prove that any rehabilitated person has been convicted of or sentenced for the offence to which the spent conviction relates; and
- (b) no person shall be compelled to answer a question relating to his or her past which cannot be answered without acknowledging or referring to his or her spent conviction or any circumstance ancillary thereto.

(3) Subject to an order under subsection (5), where a question seeking information with respect to previous convictions, offences, conduct or circumstances is put to a rehabilitated person or to any other person in respect of the rehabilitated person, otherwise than in proceedings before a judicial authority exercising its jurisdiction or functions in Grenada—

- (a) that question shall be treated as not relating to the spent conviction or any circumstance ancillary to the spent conviction, and the answer to the question may be framed accordingly; and
- (b) the person to whom the question is put shall not be subjected to any liability or otherwise prejudiced in law by reason of a failure to acknowledge or disclose the spent conviction or circumstances ancillary to the spent conviction in his or her answer to the question.

(4) Subject to an order under subsection (5)—

- (a) an obligation imposed on any person by a rule of law, or by the provisions of an international agreement or arrangement, to disclose any matter shall not extend to compelling him or her to disclose a spent conviction or circumstances ancillary thereto, whether or not he or she is the rehabilitated person to which the spent conviction relates; and
- (b) a spent conviction or a circumstance ancillary thereto, or a failure to disclose a spent conviction or a circumstance ancillary thereto, shall not be a proper ground for dismissing or excluding a person from any office, profession, occupation or employment, or for prejudicing him or her in any occupation or employment.

(5) The Minister may, by Order subject to negative resolution of the House of Representatives—

- (a) make provisions as appears to him or her to be appropriate for excluding or modifying the application of any provision of subsection (2) in relation to questions put in the circumstances as may be specified in the Order;
- (b) provide for exemptions from the application of subsection (3) as appears to him or her to be appropriate, in the cases or class of cases, and in relation to convictions of such description, as may be specified in the Order.

Eligibility for rehabilitation.

6. A convicted person is eligible for rehabilitation under this Act unless he or she has been convicted for an offence, or imposed upon him or her is a sentence, specified in Schedule I.

Rehabilitation periods for particular sentences.

7.—(1) The rehabilitation period applicable to a sentence specified in the first column of Schedule II shall be—

- (a) in the case of a sentence imposed on an adult, the period specified in the corresponding entry in the second column of Schedule II;
- (b) in the case of a sentence imposed on a person who was a child at the date of the commission of the offence, the period specified in the third column of Schedule II.

(2) The rehabilitation period applicable to an order discharging a person absolutely for an offence shall be one year from the date of conviction.

(3) Where in respect of a conviction a person was conditionally discharged, ordered to enter into a recognisance to keep the peace or be of good behaviour, or placed on probation, the rehabilitation period applicable to the sentence shall be—

- (a) two years from the date of conviction; or
- (b) a period beginning with the date of conviction and ending with the date on which the order for conditional discharge, the recognisance for keeping the peace or being of good behaviour, or the probation order, ceases or ceased to have effect, whichever is the longer.

(4) Where in respect of a conviction an order was made imposing on a person any disqualification, disability, prohibition or other similar penalty, the rehabilitation period shall be a period beginning on the date of the conviction and ending on the date on which the disqualification, disability, prohibition or penalty, as the case may be, ceases to have effect.

(5) Where in respect of any person who has been convicted of an offence as a child and a non-custodial order has been made by the Court in accordance with the Juvenile Justice Act, 2012, the rehabilitation period shall be—

- (a) two years from the date of the order; or
- (b) a period beginning with that date and ending with the date on which the order ceases or ceased to have effect,

whichever is the longer.

(6) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) consecutive terms of imprisonment or of detention under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2012 imposed in respect of offences for which a person was convicted in the same proceedings shall be treated as a single term;
- (b) terms which are wholly or partly concurrent, being terms of imprisonment or detention under the Juvenile Justice Act, 2012 imposed in respect of offences for which a person was convicted in the same proceedings shall be treated as a single term;
- (c) no account shall be taken of any subsequent variation, made by a court in dealing with a person in respect of a suspended sentence of imprisonment;
- (d) a sentence imposed by a court outside of Grenada shall be treated as a sentence described in this section that most closely corresponds with the sentence imposed.

(7) The Minister may by Order subject to negative resolution of the House of Representatives amend Schedule I and Schedule II.

Adjustment of rehabilitation period.

8.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (5), where—

- (a) in the same or separate proceedings a person is convicted of more than one offence;
- (b) the person is not excluded from rehabilitation under this Act by virtue of section 6; and

- (c) the rehabilitation periods applicable in accordance with Schedule II in respect of any resulting sentences for the offences differ, the rehabilitation period applicable to the convictions shall be the longest of those periods.

(2) Where during the rehabilitation period applicable to a conviction—

- (a) the person is convicted of a further offence which is not triable on indictment;
- (b) the sentence imposed on him or her in respect of the later conviction is subject to section 8; and
- (c) the rehabilitation period applicable in respect of either conviction would end earlier than the period applicable to the other, the rehabilitation period that would end earlier shall stand extended so as to end at the same time as the other rehabilitation period.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where during a rehabilitation period applicable in accordance with section 7 (4) the person is convicted of a further offence for which the rehabilitation period applicable is shorter than the rehabilitation period applicable to the first, the rehabilitation period under section 7 (4) shall apply.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (1), where in respect of a conviction—

- (a) a person was conditionally discharged or placed on probation; and

- (b) after the end of the rehabilitation period applicable in accordance with subsection (1), he or she is dealt with in consequence of a breach of the conditional discharge or probation order; and
- (c) the rehabilitation period applicable to the conviction in accordance with subsection (1), taking into account any sentence imposed when he or she is so dealt with, ends later than the rehabilitation period previously applicable to the conviction, he or she shall not be a rehabilitated person in respect of that conviction, and the conviction shall not be treated as spent, until the end of the new rehabilitation period in accordance with subsection (1).

General
limitations in respect of rehabilitation.

9.—(1) Nothing in section 5 (1) shall affect the determination of any issue, or prevent the admission or requirement of any evidence, relating to a person's conviction or circumstances ancillary thereto—

- (a) in any criminal proceedings before a court including any appeal or reference in a criminal matter;
- (b) in any proceedings or enquiries relating to adoption, guardianship, wardship, marriage, custody, care or control of, access to, any child or to the provision by any person of accommodation, care or schooling for minors; or
- (c) in any proceedings in which he or she is a party or witness, if, on the occasion when the issue or the admission or requirement of the evidence falls to be determined, he or she consents to the determination of the issue or, as the case may be, the admission or requirement of the evidence notwithstanding the provisions of section 5 (1).

(2) Without prejudice to section 11 and subsection (3) and notwithstanding section 5 (1), a judicial authority in Grenada may, in any proceedings before it, admit or require evidence relating to a person's spent conviction or circumstances ancillary thereto and determine any issue accordingly, if in the light of any considerations which appear to be relevant including any evidence which has been or may thereafter be put before it, the judicial authority is satisfied that justice cannot be done in the case except by admitting or requiring the evidence.

(3) The Minister may by Order exclude the application of section 5 (1) in relation to any proceedings specified in the Order, other than proceedings to which section 11 applies, to such extent and for such purposes as may be so specified.

(4) No Order made by a court with respect to any person otherwise than on a conviction shall be included in any list or statement of the person's previous convictions given or made to any court which is considering how to deal with him or her in respect of any offence.

10.—(1) This section applies to any proceedings for libel, slander or defamation instituted after the commencement of this Act and founded upon the publication of any matter imputing that a rehabilitated person has been convicted of or sentenced for an offence, if as at the date of the publication the conviction to which the offence relates is a spent conviction.

Specific
limitations relating to defamation proceedings.

(2) Nothing in section 5 (1) shall prevent the defendant in proceedings to which this section applies from relying on any defence of justification or fair comment or of absolute or qualified privilege which is available to him, her or it, or restrict the matters the defendant may establish in support of any such defence.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), where in any such proceedings malice is alleged against a defendant who is relying on a defence of qualified privilege, nothing in section 5 (1) shall restrict the matters the defendant may establish in rebuttal of the allegation.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2), no defendant in any such proceedings shall rely upon the defence of justification, if the publication is proved to have been made with malice.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (2), no defendant in any such proceedings shall rely on any matter or adduce or require any evidence for the purpose of establishing the defence that the matters published constituted a fair and accurate report of judicial proceedings, if it is proved that the matter published contained reference to evidence that was ruled to be inadmissible in the proceedings by virtue of section 5 (1).

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), subsection (2) shall apply in relation to—

- (a) any report of judicial proceedings contained in any bona fide series of law reports which does not form part of any other publication and consists solely of reports of proceedings in courts of law; and

- (b) any report or account of judicial proceedings published for bona fide educational, scientific or professional purposes, or given in the course of any lecture, class or discussion given or held for any of those purposes.

11.—(1) Subject to the provisions of an order made under subsection (4), any person who, in the course of his or her official duties—

Unauthorised disclosure of spent convictions.

- (a) has, or at any time had, custody of or access to any official record or the information contained therein; and
- (b) knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect that the official record or information contained therein includes information imputing that a named or otherwise identifiable rehabilitated person has been convicted of or sentenced for any offence which is the subject of a spent conviction, discloses the official record or information contained therein, otherwise than in the course of those duties, to another person, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars.

(2) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), it shall be a defence for the defendant to show that the disclosure was made—

- (a) to the rehabilitated person or to another person at the written request of the rehabilitated person; or

(b) to a person whom he or she reasonably believed to be the rehabilitated person or to another person at the express request of a person whom he or she reasonably believed to be the rehabilitated person.

(3) Any person who obtained, from any official record by means of any fraud, dishonesty or bribe, information imputing that a named or otherwise identifiable rehabilitated person has been convicted of or sentenced for any offence which is the subject of a spent conviction commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Minister may by Order exempt from the application of subsection (1) any case or class of cases as appears to him or her to be appropriate.

(5) Proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

PART III

EXPUNGEMENT OF SPENT CONVICTIONS

Establishment of Rehabilitation of Offenders Board.

12.—(1) There is established the Rehabilitation of Offenders Board.

(2) The constitution of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Board and other related matters shall be in accordance with Schedule III.

13. The functions of the Board are contained in Schedule IV. Functions of the Board.

14. An individual who wishes to have his or her conviction treated as spent in accordance with section 3 may, upon the expiration of the rehabilitation period, make an application, in writing in accordance with Schedule V, to the Board for the record of a spent conviction to be expunged. Application to the Board.

15.—(1) No later than 30 days after receipt of an application under section 14, the Board shall make a determination, having regard to the following— Board to make determination.

- (a) the facts and representations in support of the application;
- (b) the behaviour of the applicant during the period subsequent to the conviction;
- (c) information received as a result of any enquiry made by the Board into any matter appertaining to the application; and
- (d) whether the interest of justice or national security may be prejudiced by expungement of the records of the conviction.

(2) The Board shall in such manner as may be prescribed by Regulations—

- (a) cause proper investigations to be conducted to ascertain the veracity of facts stated in an application under section 14; and
- (b) cause proper investigations to be made to assess the behaviour of the applicant during the period subsequent to the conviction.

(3) The Board may approve or reject an application made under section 14.

Applicant to be notified of determination.

16. Upon the Board making a determination on an application, the Board shall forthwith in writing notify the applicant of its determination.

Eligibility to re-apply where application rejected.

17. A person whose application under section 14 has been rejected by the Board may make a subsequent application under section 14 after the expiration of a period not less than—

- (a) one year from the date of the determination by the Board; or
- (b) such period as may be determined by the Board and set out in the notification under section 16, which shall in no case exceed one year.

Board to issue direction where application approved.

18. Where the Board approves an application under section 14, the Board shall issue a direction in writing addressed to any person having custody or control of the records of the spent conviction to which the application relates.

Effect of direction from the Board.

19. Upon receipt of such direction from the Board in accordance with section 18, any person having custody or control of any record of the spent conviction to which the application relates shall forthwith expunge the record.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS
