- (c) a person who has been convicted of any offence with a maximum penalty of imprisonment for a term of three years or more and has not received a free pardon in respect of the conviction;
- (d) a person who has been convicted of any offence which, in the opinion of the Registrar in the revision of the list, or of the Judge in Chambers on an appeal, renders the person unfit for service as a juror.

Disqualification or exemption to be claimed. 7. No person named in the Jurors' Register shall be excused from attendance on the ground of any disqualification or exemption, other than illness, unless he or she claims the disqualification or exemption before the revision of the list.

PART III

JURORS' REGISTER

8.—(1) On or before the first day of August in every year, ^{Jurors' lists.} the Registrar shall cause to be generated from the current list a jurors' list comprising all persons qualified under section 4 and the jurors' list shall include—

- (a) the name;
- (b) the address;
- (c) the occupation; and
- (d) the nature of the qualification, of every person named therein.

(2) The Registrar shall, based on information received, or of his or her own knowledge, information and belief, add to the jurors' list received pursuant to subsection (1), the name of any person who in the opinion of the Registrar is qualified and liable to serve as a juror.

9.—(1) The Registrar shall cause the jurors' list to be ^{Publication of jurors' list.} published in the Gazette and a copy thereof to be—

- (a) affixed upon the principal door of the Court House;
- (b) affixed upon the principal door of every police station; and

(c) delivered to each assessor for the revision of the jurors' list.

(2) There shall be attached to the jurors' list as published in the Gazette, and to every copy, a notice stating that all objections to the jurors' list will be heard by the Registrar at a specified time and place.

(3) The revision of the jurors' list shall be conducted within the first fourteen days of September in every year.

Revision of jurors' list.

10.—(1) On the day appointed for the revision of the list, the Registrar sitting with at least two assessors shall examine the list and shall receive and hear any objections made by any person with respect to any person named on the jurors' list.

(2) For the purpose of assessing the suitability of persons to serve as jurors, the Registrar may call upon the assessors for advice and assistance as is necessary, and the Registrar may for stated reasons depart from the advice of the assessors.

(3) The Registrar may summon any person named in the jurors' list to appear before the Registrar and the assessors, for examination as the Registrar and assessors consider appropriate.

(4) A summons under subsection (3) shall be served personally.

(5) A person named in the jurors' list may make a claim supported by evidence that he or she is or is not liable to serve as a juror, and the burden of proof shall lie on the person.

(6) A claim under subsection (5) may be made—

- (a) orally by appearing at the revision personally, or through counsel, and adducing evidence to show that the person is or is not liable to serve as a juror; or
- (b) in writing by giving to the Registrar written notice containing the particulars of the claim and supporting the claim with evidence, as the Registrar may consider necessary, to show that the person is or is not liable to serve as a juror.

(7) The Registrar and assessors shall inquire into the claim made orally or in writing as far as reasonable.

(8) The Registrar shall strike out the name of a person from the jurors' list where—

- (a) the Registrar by his or her knowledge reasonably believes that the person is dead;
- (b) upon the evidence on oath of a person objecting, or other proof, or upon his or her knowledge, the Registrar determines that the person is not liable to serve as a juror;
- (c) the person proves upon evidence on oath or other proof that he or she is not liable to serve as a juror; or
- (d) for good reason, the Registrar determines that the person should not be liable to serve as a juror.

(9) The Registrar shall insert in the jurors' list the name of any person improperly omitted therefrom and correct errors and omissions made in respect of the name, the address, the occupation, or the nature of the qualification of a person included in the jurors' list.

(10) No person's name shall be inserted in the jurors' list unless—

- (a) the person has made an application requesting that his or her name be inserted in the jurors' list; or
- (b) the person receives from the Registrar a notice requiring him or her to show cause why his or her name should not be inserted in the jurors' list.

(11) Upon completing the revision of the jurors' list, the Registrar shall certify in writing upon a fair copy of the jurors' list as revised that he or she has examined the revised jurors' list in the presence of at least two named assessors and that the revised jurors' list is, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, a true and proper list of the jurors.

Assessors.

11.—(1) The assessors shall be appointed by the Governor-General for a period not exceeding three years and the appointments shall be made in a manner that the terms of service of assessors do not expire at the same time.

(2) There shall be five assessors as follows—

- (a) one representative from the office of the Director of Public Prosecutions;

- (b) two persons with broad experience of the Grenada society, after consultation with the civil society;
 - (c) one representative from the Grenada Bar Association; and
 - (d) one representative from the Royal Grenada Police Force of a rank not below Inspector.

(3) An assessor is eligible for re-appointment at the expiration of his or her term of service as an assessor.

12.—(1) A person who makes an objection under section 10 and is dissatisfied with the decision of the Registrar may, within five days after pronouncement of the decision, give written notice of his or her intention to appeal against the decision to a Judge in Chambers. Appeals.

(2) Where the Registrar receives a written notice of intention to appeal pursuant to subsection (1), the Registrar shall transmit to the Judge a note of the proceedings on the hearing and determination of the objection.

(3) The Judge shall hear the appeal in a summary manner, and shall make such order in respect thereof as may be just.

(4) The Registrar shall publish in the Gazette every alteration and correction made to the revised jurors' list in consequence of an appeal under this section.

13.—(1) Immediately after the final revision, the Registrar shall cause the jurors' list as revised pursuant to sections 10 and 12 to be fairly and truly copied in alphabetical order, in a register to be called "The Jurors' Register". Jurors' Register.

(2) The Jurors' Register shall be taken to be a true record of all persons qualified and liable to serve on juries for the relevant year from 1st January to 31st December, subject to subsection (3).

(3) Each Jurors' Register shall remain in force until the next Jurors' Register has been made up.

PART IV

SUMMONING OF JURORS

Selection of jurors and service of summons.

14.—(1) At a convenient time before any sitting of the Court at which a jury is required, the Registrar shall select not less than thirty persons to serve as jurors.

(2) The persons to serve as jurors shall be selected at random from the names in the Jurors' Register using counters in a ballot box or database.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the persons selected pursuant to subsection (2) shall be summoned to serve on a jury panel.

(4) The Registrar shall not summon—

- (a) a person who is known and believed by the Registrar to be temporarily absent from the jurisdiction and not likely to return in time to attend the sitting of the Court; or
- (b) a person selected at random from the Jurors' Register who has, within two years prior to the present selection, been selected and summoned to serve on a jury panel.

(5) Every summons to be served on a juror shall be signed by the Registrar and served by the summoning officer of the Court not less than fourteen days before the day appointed for the sitting of the Court, and service shall be effected—

- (a) by delivering to the person to be summoned; or
- (b) by leaving for the person at his or her last or most usual place of abode or place of business.

(6) Where a summons has been served on a person who does not qualify under section 5 to serve as a juror, the person shall, before the sitting of the Court, declare to the Registrar that he or she does not qualify under section 5 to serve as a juror.

(7) The summoning officer shall make a true return of the service, and shall attend at the sitting of the Court, and if necessary, verify the service on oath.

(8) All summoning officers shall be appointed by the Registrar.

(9) The Registrar may appoint temporary summoning officers from time to time for a period not exceeding two months.

15.—(1) The Registrar shall not summon more than one person from one place of business to serve as jurors at the same sitting. Place of business of juror.

(2) Upon notification by an employer or a juror that more than one juror summoned to attend the same sitting are employees of the same employer, the Registrar shall discharge every additional juror and any juror so discharged shall be summoned for the next sitting when a jury is required.

(3) An employer of a person who is serving, has served or is qualified to serve, as a juror shall not—

- (a) require the person to pay the employer, or any other person, any fees payable to him or her as a juror under this Act;
- (b) deduct any sum from the remuneration of the person;
- (c) require as a term or condition of employment that a sum be deducted from the remuneration of that person; or
- (d) directly or indirectly penalise that person in any way including—
 - (i) in relation to access to opportunities for promotion, transfer, training or any other benefits, facilities or services; or
 - (iii) dismissing or threatening to dismiss the person or subjecting or threatening to subject the person to any other detriment, on account of the fact that the person is serving, has served or is qualified to serve, as a juror.

(4) An employer who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

16.—(1) Unless challenged and set aside, the jury panel shall be deemed to be correctly selected and to be regular and lawful in every respect. Presumption of regularity of jury panel.

(2) All persons selected pursuant to section 14 shall be the jurors to serve for the trial of all issues at the sitting of the Court to which they are summoned.

(3) If no objection is made on behalf of any of the parties to the proceeding, it may be tried with the same jury which has tried or been drawn to try any other proceeding.

PART V

EMPANELLING A JURY

17. At the sitting of the Court, the names of the jurors on the jury panel shall be written on separate cards as nearly as may be of equal size and put into a ballot box, and upon the trial of any proceeding the Registrar shall in open Court draw therefrom until such number of persons appear as are required, who after all just causes of challenge allowed shall remain as fair and indifferent, and the same shall be done whenever it is necessary to form a new jury. Calling jury.

18.—(1) The cards containing the names of the jurors sworn on a jury shall be kept apart until the jury is discharged and shall then be returned into the box. Names of jurors sworn and unsworn to be kept apart.

(2) If any proceeding is brought for trial before the jury in any previous proceeding has brought in its verdict, the Court may order another jury to be sworn from the names remaining in the box.

Alternate jurors. 19.—(1) The Court may direct that not more than six jurors in addition to the regular jury shall be called and empanelled to sit as alternate jurors.

(2) Alternate jurors shall, in the order in which they are called, replace any jurors on the regular jury who, prior to the time it retires to consider its verdict, have become or been found to be unable to perform their duties or disqualified therefrom.

(3) An alternate juror who does not replace a juror on the regular jury shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict.

(4) Alternate jurors shall—

- (a) be drawn in the same manner;
- (b) have the same qualifications;
- (c) take the same oath; and
- (d) have the same functions, powers, facilities and privileges, as the other jurors under this Act.

PART VI

NUMBER, CHALLENGES, COUNTING AND SWEARING IN OF JURY

Number of jury. 20. The jury for every trial shall consist of nine jurors, except for trials on a capital charge or a charge for non-capital murder for which the jury shall consist of twelve jurors.

21. Whenever a jury is, or alternate jurors are, being empanelled for the trial of a person charged with a criminal offence— Peremptory challenges.

(a) the accused person may peremptorily and without cause challenge any number of jurors not exceeding four;

(b) the prosecutor may peremptorily and without cause challenge any number of jurors not exceeding four in respect of each accused person but not exceeding eight jurors in all.

22.—(1) The prosecutor and every accused person shall be entitled to any number of challenges on any of the following grounds— Challenges for cause.

- (a) that a juror's name does not appear in the Jurors' Register;
- (b) that a juror is not impartial between the Crown and the accused;
- (c) that a juror has been convicted of any offence for which he or she was sentenced to death or to a term of imprisonment exceeding one year;
- (d) that a juror is not a citizen of Grenada under the law in force for the time being;
- (e) that a juror is of an age less than twenty-one years or exceeding sixty-five years;
- (f) that a juror is disqualified by virtue of paragraph (a) or (b) of section 6; or

(g) that a juror was returned to serve within two years from being selected and summoned to serve on a previous jury panel.

(2) A misnomer or misdescription of a juror's name in the Jurors' Register shall not qualify under subsection (1) (a) if the Court is satisfied that the description in the Jurors' Register sufficiently designates the person to which it refers.

(3) The disqualification or want of qualification of a juror shall not be brought into question after the juror has been sworn and no verdict shall be impeached by reason of the disqualification or want of qualification of a juror who may have concurred in it.

(4) Every challenge shall be tried by the Judge and his or her decision shall be final.

Counting and swearing of jurors.

23.—(1) After the jurors for the jury panel are selected, each juror shall be counted in the box by the Registrar, who shall then swear each juror with the oath in the Oaths Act, Chapter 219.

(2) Where a juror refuses, or is unwilling from alleged conscientious motives, to be sworn, the Judge may allow the juror to make an affirmation, if the Judge is satisfied of the sincerity of the juror's objection.

(3) An affirmation under subsection (2) shall have the same force and effect as an oath in the usual form and, if untrue, the person making the affirmation shall be liable to the same penalties as are provided against persons guilty of perjury.

(4) Whenever in any legal or other proceedings it is necessary or usual to state that jurors have been sworn, it shall be sufficient to state that the jurors have been sworn whether or not any particular juror has made an affirmation instead of an oath.

(5) After the jurors have been sworn, the jurors shall by a majority vote elect one of their members to be their foreman.

(6) The foreman shall preside at the meetings for consideration of the verdict and request any information from the Court on the behalf of the entire jury or any juror.

24.—(1) A verdict of a jury shall not in any proceedings be accepted within two hours after the conclusion of the summing up, unless the verdict is the verdict of all the jurors. Verdict.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), after the expiration of two hours from the conclusion of the summing up, the Court may receive the verdict of seven jurors as the verdict of the jury.

(3) In every proceeding in which the accused is arraigned on a charge for murder, after the expiration of two hours from the conclusion of the summing up, the Court may receive the verdict of ten jurors as the verdict of the jury, if they return a verdict convicting the accused of any offence less than murder of which they are entitled by law to convict him or her.

(4) In every proceeding in which the accused is arraigned on a capital charge or a charge for non-capital murder, the verdict shall be the verdict of all the jurors.

(5) The foreman, in delivering the verdict, shall declare to the Court in the presence of the jury that jurors of the required number have agreed and all verdicts given by the majorities pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) shall have the same force and effect as if the whole of the jury had concurred therein.

(6) The taking of the verdict of the jury, or other proceeding of the Court, shall not be invalid by reason of its happening on Sunday.

Discharge of jury owing to disagreement.

25. If after the expiration of three hours from the conclusion of the summing up, the members of the jury are not agreed and state that they are not likely to agree, the Court may discharge them and—

- (a) cause another jury to be summoned at the same session; or
- (b) adjourn the proceeding to a future session, and no member constituting the first jury shall be eligible to serve on the re-trial.

Communication with jury while in retirement.

26.—(1) Where the jury retires to consider the verdict, no person, other than the officer of the Court who has charge of the jury, shall without the leave of the Court communicate in any way with any member of the jury.

(2) Where a person contravenes subsection (1) and the Court discovers the contravening conduct before the verdict of the jury is returned, the Court may—

- (a) if the Court opines that the contravening conduct has produced substantial mischief, discharge the jury and direct a new jury to be sworn or empanelled during the sittings; or

- (b) postpone the trial on such terms as justice may require.

(3) If the Court complies with subsection (2), contravention of subsection (1) shall not affect the validity of the proceedings.

27.—(1) In the case of any emergency or casualty rendering it expedient for the ends of justice, the Court may discharge the jury without the jury giving a verdict and—

Discharge of jury in certain special cases.

- (a) direct a new jury to be empanelled during the sittings; or
- (b) postpone the trial on such terms as justice may require.

(2) If the Judge becomes incapable of trying the proceeding or directing the jury to be discharged, the Registrar shall discharge the jury.

(3) If the Court determines that any member of the jury has become incapable of continuing to perform his or her duty before the jury retires to consider the verdict, the Court may—

- (a) discharge the jury and direct a new jury to be empanelled during the sittings; or
- (b) postpone the trial; or
- (c) with the consent of all the parties, proceed with the remaining members of the jury and take their verdict, which shall have the same effect as the verdict of the whole number.

Adjournment of trial.

28.—(1) Subject to the Court's power to adjourn a trial, every trial shall proceed continuously from commencement until the discharge of the jury.

(2) Upon every adjournment, the Court may direct that the jury shall be kept together and that proper provision shall be made to prevent the jury from communicating with any person on the subject of the trial.

Jurors' fees and allowances.

29.—(1) Every juror shall receive from the Registrar out of funds advanced to him or her by the Accountant General, the sum specified in the Second Schedule for each day or part thereof that he or she is required to attend, and does attend, a session.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), every juror shall receive a subsistence allowance in the sum specified in the Second Schedule for each day or part thereof that he or she is required to attend, and does attend, a session.

(3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), every juror who resides outside of the parish of Saint George shall receive a travel allowance, as may be determined by the Registrar, in a sum within the range specified in the Second Schedule for each day or part thereof that he or she is required to attend, and does attend, a session.

(4) No juror shall receive any subsistence allowance or travel allowance provided for in subsections (2) and (3) while he or she is required to serve, and does serve, on the trial of any person where the Judge has directed that the jury shall be kept together.

Refreshment of jurors.

30. The Judge may make such order as he or she thinks proper for the accommodation, custody, and refreshment of the jurors who have been sworn, and the costs attendant upon the making of any such order shall be defrayed from the Treasury.
